
Hints for element identification

You can move the arm of the spectrograph you look through.

Don't play with the knobs, don't move the actual spectrograph, and don't touch the prism.

Don't look for exact positions / numbers of lines.
Look for general trends!

Ask your demonstrator to check your answers, too.